

Wolves In Sheep's Clothing

Revised
December 2025

Even though Jesus Christ warned against “wolves in sheep's clothing”, Mat. 7:15 “Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.”, in every modern church congregation, the people always act like they are immune from being deceived in such a way. They say that it is simple to identify a “wolf in sheep's clothing” even from a long way off, as though they could easily enough smell one coming even before they could see one coming. This is as foolish as saying that the US is immune from having foreign spies. What good would a foreign spy be if he was obviously foreign by sight from a long way off, smelled differently and strongly from far away, spoke English with a foreign accent and either acted hostile or, to the contrary, acted with obvious fake excessive friendliness? How could he deceive anyone without being suspected? As a spy he would be useless. A “secret” agent cannot be “secret” if his presence is obvious.

The most effective spies, or enemies, are those who were brought up from childhood in the US. They “blend in” and are accepted as equal citizens. They are the ones who are the most dangerous and also the most diligent in seeking positions of leadership in order to gain advantages. One example is how President Bush's great grandfather Samuel Bush was a WW1 Small Arms and Ammunition producer who made and sold arms to 75% of the WW1 combatants on both sides.

If you were in the war, would it not seem strange that the enemy was using the exact same weapons as you were using? That sounds like the Iraq/Iran war where the gun provider sold the same arms to both sides, probably because he wanted both sides to lose, you know, that they kill each other off. You know, reduce over-population. What does that tell you about the way the Bush family think of their fellow American citizens? Is there any reason that the next president should be any different?

According to democraticunderground.com: “Unfortunately most of the records and correspondence of Bush's arms-related section of the government have been burned ‘to save space’ in the National Archives.” It would be very interesting to find out if they were the only documents burned to 'save space' or if they were burned along with many other documents. Also, for many years before the invention of digital recording, many libraries used to save even masses of daily newspaper articles on micro-film, to 'save space'. (Micro-film provided a method for keeping enormous quantities of information in a very small space.) So then, why was it necessary to destroy documents in the National Archives, supposedly to 'save space'? Why didn't they put those documents on micro-film?

After that, in WW2, Bush's grandfather, Connecticut Senator Prescott Bush paid for Hitler's rise to power, which was, more than likely, paid for with the enormous fortune of his father Samuel Bush from selling weapons, on both sides, during WW1. Don't forget that Germany was in shambles after WW1 and needed outside assistance in order to rebuild. According to the Washington Times: "President Bush's grandfather was a director of a bank seized by the federal government because of its ties to a German industrialist who helped bankroll Adolf Hitler's rise to power, government documents show." Hitler needed a lot of money to rebuild and to make an enormous amount of weapons for his military..... And Grandpa Bush (Connecticut Senator) was there to pay the bill.

Prescott Bush's sons and grandsons show every sign of following in his footsteps. Also, they are all members of the "Skull and Bones" secret society. ("Skull and Bones" is what you see on all those pirate flags. They have a white human skull with two cross bones below it on a black background, sometimes with a patch over one eye.) (They are probably not much different than, and in cahoots with the Nazis; they are all followers of Satan.) Isn't Bush's 9-11 something a Nazi would do? Rest assured, President Bush was responsible for, or at least in cahoots with 9-11. (See documentary about Bush's 9-11 called: Loose Change at www.InfoWars.com or www.loosechange911.com) (A web search for Samuel or Prescott Bush will give an abundance of information about the "Skull and Bones" Nazi Bush family history.)

Thus, it can be concluded that most of those churches that think they are immune from satanic spies have "wolves in sheep's clothing" as leaders. It is the "wolves in sheep's clothing" who are teaching the sheep that the sheep are immune from being deceived by "wolves in sheep's clothing". In the case of most modern Christian churches, almost ALL of their members have already been converted to Satan, and so, they have no reason to be concerned about "wolves in sheep's clothing". The majority of modern churches are this way. Occassionally, an innocent neutral observer comes wandering in among them. But, they are usually quickly converted to their fake Christianity. And..... what if a true Christian leader were to come in among them. Those fake leaders would know who he is immediately, and see to it that the real Christian leader was labeled as a "wolf in sheep's clothing" as soon as possible.

Obama's open socialist backing goes back at least to 1996, when he received the endorsement of the Chicago branch of the Democratic Socialists of America (DSA) for an Illinois state senate seat. According to Cliff Kincaid in Accuracy in the Media Obama endorsed openly Socialist Senator Bernie Sanders in 2006. Obama was later openly endorsed by the Communist Party USA in his run for President of the United States. Of course, since most of the people who voted for Obama were black, they weren't concerned about him being a communist, they voted for him because of the color of his skin.

Trump, on the other hand, supposedly had some communist interference computer hacking that supported him during his election. He has a long history of being good friends with Soviets/Russians, kind of like how the Bush family was long standing friends with the Bin Ladin family.

Trump does support “redistribution of wealth”, which has a clear communist origin. (Funny thing, people like Trump are wealthy, but people like him aren't interested in “redistribution” of their own wealth, only in “redistribution” of somebody else's wealth. They like making laws that force other prosperous tax payers to provide for that.) The 2018 documentary about Trump called “Active Measures” really gives a lot of juicy details about how involved Trump is in Communist dealings.

Notice how, the old idea that communists are always very bad people has somehow been lost ever since the downfall of the iron curtain in the early 90's. The old communist goal was to take over countries like the US. You see, they have learned that they can make a lot more progress by using the “wolf in sheep's clothing” methodology, which is commonly used by satanic people in the churches, than by using their previous methods of force and tyranny. Nonetheless, they are still equally as bad as they were before they lost their bad reputation. And..... they're saving the “tyranny” for later. Just like what they did in Venezuela, a few years ago.

It is truly amazing how, at times, information about these types of things can be known so openly and easily. A very good example of this was the documentary “Fahrenheit 9-11”, which came out just before Bush's re-election in 2004 and showed many of the horrible atrocities done during Bush's first term in office, starting with his use of fraud to win his first election. After that, Bush's 9-11 in 2001. After that, the wars in the middle east in which the Bush family made billions of dollars stealing petroleum, etc Not millions..... billions in petroleum, while many American soldiers were being killed in those wars, not for the defense of America, but to make the Bush family rich. The US military was occupying Iraq while Bush's oil company was continuously removing oil from that country. It should be stated clearly that Iraq had absolutely nothing to do with the attack on 9-11.

The attack on 9-11 was not done by foreigners, it was done by Bush (by Bush's partners in crime), so that he could start bogus wars against innocent people in order to steal billions of dollars of their petroleum.), which were shown in that documentary with such a light air of mockery that it would turn the stomach of any decent person. Meaning that the documentary “Fahrenheit 9-11” was made in such a way that it was obvious that the producers themselves were mocking all the US citizens, like spitting in the faces of the people watching it, that the president could get away with doing such atrocities. Because nobody would even believe that any US president could do such things. And as long as the average American is economically comfortable, they don't want to be bothered with standing up against such things. The average Americans are happy Ostriches with their heads in the sand and they don't see anything, nor hear anything, nor say anything, at all. (See no evil, hear no evil and speak no evil.) They refuse to believe it, much less do anything about it.

That documentary also worked like “reverse psychology” inasmuch that it showed Bush to be so far to the extreme bad that most of the Americans who saw it refused to believe it was possible that any US president could possibly be that bad; it must be a lie. Most Americans put in their ear plugs so they wouldn't have to hear such things, like Ostriches with their heads in the sand. (See no evil, hear no evil and speak no evil.)

Bush's attack on 9-11 also permitted the government to alter the law in order to permit “invasion of privacy” in a manner that was never seen before. Really? What does invading citizen's privacy have to do with an attack falsely presented as though it was from foreigners from outside of America? Why is it necessary for the government to do things like legally listen to everyone's telephone conversation in order to prevent another attack from supposedly foreigners? After all, most American's believe that America is immune from having foreign spies, just like how the churches are immune from having wolves in sheep's clothing. Before that attack, most Americans had a general mentality that America is immune from such an attack. Temporarily, that mentality of immunity disappeared right after 9-11. But now, most Americans are putting their heads back into the sand again, like happy Ostriches.

My goodness, the Watergate scandal against Nixon, involving “invasion of privacy”, was nothing compared to Bush's atrocity. It was so bad that Nixon had to resign from his presidency. Yet, Bush was not officially accused of anything. Most Americans put in their ear plugs so they wouldn't have to hear such things, like Ostriches with their heads in the sand. (See no evil, hear no evil and speak no evil.)

As a result of this rejection of the true badness of the president, more people voted for Bush in his second election than in his first election. In his first election, he had to use fraud with the assistance of his brother, John Ellis Bush, the state governor of Florida, to get elected, but not in his second election. Rest assured, his second election was a legitimate win. Rest assured, American voters are truly the biggest schmucks in the world. It really looks like it was Bush's own people who produced “Fahrenheit 9-11”, because they understood the psychological effect it would have on the average gullible American voter who cannot handle the thought that any US president could possibly be that bad.

Rest assured, the badness of Bush that was shown in “Fahrenheit 9-11” was the truth; and they knew that type of documentary would increase the average American's stupidity, and make them even more gullible imbeciles than they were before. This is just like the average church member who thinks they're immune from having “wolves in sheep's clothing” as church leaders. After the corruption of their leaders has been exposed, those church members become more gullible than they were before! They refuse to believe it, and then they support their leaders more.

Notice – I’m not into politics much. I only use this example because it is so obvious that it fits so well. So..... politicians don’t have to worry about me. My concern is about the corruption in the churches.

This type of “reverse psychology” works the same way in the churches as in politics; if church members are told how bad their leaders really are (wolves in sheep's clothing), they support them more. If church members are shown that their leaders are “wolves in sheep's clothing”, they support them even more than before..... and refuse to believe it. But, perhaps that’s because they’ve already been converted to Satan, so they already know that their leaders are phony Christians.

Supposedly, the very essence of religion is a matter of “truth”. But, over the years, the enemy (Satan) has “....crept in unawares.....” (Jude 1:4) with both his “wolves in sheep’s clothing” and his lies (errors). So, whenever diligent people get involved in any religion, they are always faced with the fact that their religion has a lot of lying going on inside it. Most people handle this problem by simply following along with everybody else (go with the flow), and eventually they get accustomed to it. Most people don’t like rocking the boat. They don’t even perceive any errors. (See all the other articles, listed below.) (For those people who really don’t recognize any errors in their own church, try visiting other churches. Every church is different, with different errors and different strengths, yet they all think that their church is the best road to God, and they think all the other churches are the ones loaded with errors, not theirs. And..... if you observe with an impartial and unprejudiced attitude, while observing other churches, your own churches’ errors ought to become clearer and clearer.)

They don’t stop and think that if they had been born and raised in a different place, among different people, they would have followed the other crowd equally as much in a different religion (church), and believed the whole time that the other religion (church), which they would otherwise be accustomed to is the “best” and “true”.

In addition, many times they slip into a sort of arrogance about their superiority in religion. It’s amazing how almost all religious people perceive their own religion to be the “best” possible spiritual road to God. They like thinking of themselves as “superior”. Yet, at the same time, most of them know very little about any other church, and they are usually oblivious to the strengths and good characteristics about any other churches. (This “arrogant superiority” is one of the most destructive corruptions in all churches.)

Of course, it has to be recognized that every church leader is not always a satanic spy (wolves in sheep's clothing). However, most of the ones who are not satanic spies are, nonetheless lukewarm in the faith. In most cases, they were trained by the “wolves in sheep’s clothing”. Even though some of them are not wolves, they are completely incapable of perceiving the presence of “wolves in sheep’s clothing” in their own churches. And..... the present modern love of prosperity has blinded their eyes. (See article on: The Lukewarm Church.)

Sometimes, those satanic spies who are pretending to be Christians can even openly show their inner character by having eyes that look like demonic satanic eyes. This is called the “evil eye”, which is very common, but does not always apply to everyone who is active in Satanism. But everyone who has the “evil eye” is definitely active in Satanism. It is even possible that their entire head and/or body could look like that of a satanic wolf, and yet they seem to have no difficulty getting into a church and getting positions of leadership.

Most people accept those people who look like wolves without sheep's clothing because they present themselves as being normal regular long-term respectable members of their own church, despite their evil looks. The problem is that most people do not like unpleasant confrontations (they prefer to stay comfortable..... they don't see anything, or hear anything, or say anything), so they don't do anything about it and, as time goes by, they get accustomed to it. (See no evil, hear no evil and speak no evil.)

Those satanic wolves love going to church meetings and “blending in” for many years before they seek any position of leadership, so that nobody suspects who they really are. Then they can have their fun corrupting the church little by little, from the inside. The changes happen so slowly and gradually that nobody even notices a thing. Presently, a whole lot of corruption is already in effect. So, anyone who attempts to correct the problems would probably be perceived as a “wolf in sheep’s clothing”. (Like me.) I’m a person attempting to correct the problems. Who knows, maybe they might even start calling me the Anti-Christ.

This is kind of like the example of a frog, which, if it is put into a pot of hot water will jump out immediately. But if that same frog is put into a pot of comfortable water, it will stay there even if the temperature is raised very slowly all the way up to boiling. If the temperature is raised slowly enough, the frog will die there and not jump out. The spies’ good manners, religious talk and supposedly “loving” and “friendly” attitude are part of their super professional “sheep's clothing”. Jude 4 “For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men.....” Jude 12, 13 “These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.”

It is also of the utmost importance to recognize that a false leader in the church can sometimes speak the true Word of God and the true message of God in, what is really, a truthful, genuine and seemingly loving way. This is a deception that many people have difficulty understanding. A false leader can, at times, speak things that are genuinely correct and true. Titus 1:12,13 “One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies (lazy gluttons). 13- This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;” KJV This was a genuine truth that was spoken by a false prophet. Phil. 1:15-18

“Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds: But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel. What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice....” KJV It is absurd to think that false teachers speak exclusively lies all the time. A false prophet is the most dangerous when he speaks the truth to win the approval of innocent people.

The famous theologian Dr. Dietrich Bonhoeffer, who was a German, working as a German spy against Hitler during WW2, trying to bring Hitler down said, “Better for a lover of truth to tell a lie than for a liar to tell the truth.” A spy is, by essence, a liar. Spying is a false pretense. So Bonhoeffer considered it better to be a false pretender spy to bring Hitler down than to be a faithful German citizen/supporter of an evil leader.

Because he was a clergyman, Bonhoeffer had rare permission to leave and enter Germany during the war, so he worked as one of the messengers bringing important information out to the allies. He also helped Jewish people escape Germany through Switzerland. But the Nazis caught Bonhoeffer and put him in prison where he gave spiritual support to other prisoners of the Nazis. Just before the end of the war, when it was obvious that Germany had lost, the Nazis offered Bonhoeffer his freedom if he would speak to the allies to get a conditional surrender in favor of Germany, because they knew that the allies would trust Bonhoeffer. But Bonhoeffer refused to speak favorably for the Nazis, so they executed him just before the war ended.

Previously, when the Nazis put large swastikas in his church building, he tore them down. The Nazis made his writings illegal and prohibited him from preaching. So, he was forced to preach secretly. His most famous book was translated from German into English as, “The Cost of Discipleship”. (Available to read online.) Just before the war started he was visiting in the US, and he could have stayed out of Germany, if he wanted. But he decided to return and fight against evil. The Nazis destroyed his seminary building and ordered his students to either become Nazi soldiers or go to prison. See documentary on <https://www.youtube.com>: “Dietrich Bonhoeffer: A Story of Courage and Faith” (There are also other documentaries about Bonhoeffer on youtube.)

Never is a deceiver more dangerous than when he tells the truth. That’s when he persuades innocent people to think that he is one of the good guys. Bonhoeffer said: “Better for a lover of truth to tell a lie than for a liar to tell the truth.” Meaning: It is better for a good person to work as a deceptive spy to bring down evil, than for an evil spy to pass for a good person among innocent people.

The Word of God is so powerful that it can produce positive results even when someone with bad intentions preaches it. The true Word of God can even produce the true work of salvation in a new believer when spoken by a false leader, satanic spy.

For example, even in the natural world, a piece of a dead carcass (or manure) actually works like fertilizer and helps a seed to germinate when it is planted along with the seed. Lev. 11:37 "And if any part of their carcase fall upon any sowing seed which is to be sown, it shall be clean." Luke 8:11 "...The seed is the word of God."

Consequently, immediately after a false leader converts a new genuine believer, the false leader is then in the best position possible to rob the new Christian of his eternal crown and inject the poison of many corrupt teachings and customs. A false prophet is the most dangerous when he speaks the truth to win the approval of innocent people. Rev. 3:11 ".... hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown." KJV Those false leaders know that God has already made up a list of people who He has selected to be saved, and that they cannot stop those people from getting saved. Eph. 1:4 "According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world ," But, they do know that they can try to corrupt the new Christians after they get saved. And there is no better way of corrupting the church than as a spy on the inside, especially as a leader (evangelist) who saves souls. A false prophet is the most dangerous when he speaks the truth to win the approval of innocent people.

Mat. 7:21 "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." KJV Not everyone who calls Jesus Christ "Lord" is accepted by Him. Only those who OBEY Him, as He said, those who "doeth the will of my Father" are accepted. (Mat. 12:46-50) If you ask them how to determine what the will of God is (the will of my Father), they usually don't have the foggiest notion; they can't even determine what the will of God is, much less obey it. If it was the will of God that they should be missionaries in a foreign country, they would never know it, much less do it. (Oh, the bad churches that have lots of errors enjoy being missionaries. They like spreading their errors.) It is the supposed "good" churches that usually have their spiritual ear plugs in so that they can not even hear when God wants them to do something that they don't like. That way they never have to do anything they don't want to do. God never reveals His will to anyone who is unwilling to do it. Those people will have no part in the kingdom of God in the next life. (See article on: Salvation.) They have not lost their salvation, but they have lost their crowns. The "kingdom of heaven" is not the same thing as basic salvation from hell.

Mat. 7:15, 21-23 "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? 21- Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity." KJV In modern churches there are many church leaders who claim to have received supernatural gifts from God, such as the ability to prophecy, and the ability to cast out demons (devils) or the ability to miraculously heal sick people (wonderful works), as the Apostles did in the first generation church. (Mark 16:17,18; Acts 2:43; Acts 19:11-12)

Yet, if you observe, when they “lay hands” on “demon” possessed people in their church meetings, it is only done to their own church members, never to a satanic unbeliever who is not a member of their church..... And it is constantly done to the same church members over and over again. The demons that Jesus and the Apostles cast out were always from people who were not yet members of the church, they were never members of the faithful followers of Christ. (Of course, after the demon was cast out, many times the person became a faithful follower of Christ.) The modern custom of constantly casting out demons from their own church members shows that demons are always present among themselves. It looks more like those leaders are casting demons INTO the people rather than casting demons OUT of the people. No matter how many times they cast the demons out, they can never get rid of them. The demons are always there.

Meanwhile, if by chance, one of those leaders who claim to have received the supernatural gift of casting out demons comes in contact with someone outside the church who openly follows Satan, who is really demon possessed, those church leaders run away from them like cowards..... every last one of them run away like cowards. (And, they make a big show of it.) Of course, they're not really cowards, because they themselves are really on the same side as the demon possessed followers of Satan. They're just trying to magnify the power of Satan by drawing attention to it, by running away pretending to be cowards, making Satan seem as great as possible and injecting fear into the minds of the Christians.

Oh yeah, and if there's a virus scare, like COVID, they are the first people to close their meetings. Kind of like the “fastest gun in the west”, nobody can beat them for speed when it comes to running away for fear of sickness. They teach that they have the same supernatural gift of healing that the Apostles had on the day of Pentecost. But, whenever they lay their hands on any sick person, there is never any supernatural healing. They are always, always, always accustomed to seeing an absence of any kind of healing at their meetings. Lies, lies, lies, lies.

All this comes from falsely claiming to have the supernatural gift of healing, accompanied with the custom of laying hands on the sick people, as though they were expecting a miracle. In the end, they thwart people's faith in the New Testament, which says that when the Apostles laid hands on sick people there was always a miracle that happened. After constantly watching this custom of seeing preachers lay hands on sick people, followed by nothing ever happening, people might start to doubt whether or not the Apostles really even had that gift at all back then. 2Tim 3:5 “Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.” Their leaders are always “wolves in sheep's clothing”. There are no exceptions, all of the church leaders who claim to have the same supernatural gifts of the Spirit as the Apostles had are “wolves in sheep’s clothing”. It can not be an honest mistake. ALL of the church leaders who claim to have the same supernatural gifts of the Spirit that the Apostles had are “wolves in sheep’s clothing”. From the second generation of the church until now nobody has had any of those supernatural gifts.

They also use the custom of “laying on of hands” for everything, which was not done in the NT. The custom of “laying on of hands” was used exclusively with the supernatural “sign gifts”, especially miraculous healing. In the first generation church the miracles always happened, but in our days, the miracles never happen. They have a perfect score: absolute zero. NEVER, NEVER, NEVER.

“Laying on of hands” was also used for the ordination of new church leaders. (It was not used for casting out demons. The demons were cast out with words alone.) Imagine driving a car and leaving the right turn signal on continuously. It could then no longer serve its original purpose. When the car actually turns right, nobody would be expecting it. The custom of “laying hands on” someone for prayer is not supposed to be done all the time for everyone and every case. When they “laid hands on” someone, back in the Bible, it was supposed to be an act of faith like telling everyone beforehand: “hey look, a miracle is about to happen”, just as when someone turns on the right turn signal, the car is supposed to turn right very soon. And when they lay hands on someone, it is to be expected that a supernatural miracle must follow. But, in modern times, no miracle ever happens..... never! They have a perfect score: absolute zero. NEVER, NEVER, NEVER.

The Apostles were in the process of writing the New Testament and making changes in the established true Old Testament religion. So, God's way of proving (confirming) that making changes in the true religion and that the NT was truly the genuine Word of God and genuine will of God was by using the “sign gifts”, which included supernatural healing miracles when the Apostles put their hands on sick people. Mark 16:20 “And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following.” Act 5:15 “Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.” (Only Peter had this gift.)

When Jesus was standing in front of the tomb of Lazarus, he ordered the people to remove the stone from the entrance of the tomb and he shouted with a loud voice: John 11:43 “Lazarus, come forth”, it was of the utmost importance that Lazarus came out of the tomb at that same moment. It was a sign miracle. Try to imagine nothing happening after Jesus shouted: “Lazarus, come forth”. Everyone would have said that he must be a phony. Yet, in modern churches the leaders are constantly “laying hands on” sick people and nothing EVER happens at that same moment. NEVER!!! NEVER!!! NEVER!!! They have a perfect score; absolute zero..... every last one of them and every single time. And if someone asks them why nothing happened, they start making feeble excuses which are a big pack of lies. Lies, lies, lies, lies.

Deut. 18:20-22 "But the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die. 21- And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken? 22- When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him." In the Old Testament, the penalty for this type of corruption was death. One time, in the New Testament, they even tried to stone Jesus because he said that he was the son of God, which they considered blasphemy. (John 8:54,59)

But now, when the people in attendance at modern churches see that nothing happens, many of them jump or shout with joy as though something really did happen. What..... are they crazy? Or maybe they are liars working for Satan trying to trip-up any possible innocent observers with their false representation of Christianity and get the innocent observers to reject the message of Jesus Christ. It is a fake show intended to deceive and get people to reject God. All of the participants who go along with it approvingly know perfectly well that it's a fake show intended to deceive people.

There are also some special cases of fake healers who put on false shows where people falsely pretend to be sick or crippled and get healed on TV. Those fake healers are very much different than what goes on in local churches where everyone knows everyone else. In churches that say they have the gift of healing, they don't do false healing shows inside the church like the ones on TV. It isn't possible to falsify the healing of a person that everyone knows. In the churches that say they have the gift of healing, the supposed healer just stands there after "laying hands on" a sick person and no healing of any kind ever happens at that moment. NEVER!!! NEVER!!! NEVER!!! They have a perfect score: absolute zero.

It is very important that when anyone "lays hands on" a sick person that something happens at that same instant..... a supernatural miracle must be expected, or else the supposed healer must be considered a phony Christian satanic spy. 1Tim 4:1 "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;" The modern practice of "laying hands on" a sick person must be considered to be a "doctrine of devils". It is a satanic false teaching intended to get people to reject God. It is NOT the same as simple prayer for healing. The inappropriate use of the custom of "laying hands on" someone is major corruption. But most modern churches don't recognize any difference.

Their claim to be able to speak in other tongues is equally as false. On the day of Pentecost the Spirit of God came upon the Apostles and they spoke in other languages, which they never learned before. (Acts 2:1-12) Those languages were legitimate human languages which other foreign people visiting Jerusalem there could understand. Act 2:7,8 "And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans? 8- And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?"

But, the people in modern churches who claim to have this same supernatural gift never speak in legitimate human languages..... and they never do it for the purpose of preaching the gospel to foreigners as the Apostles did. In these modern churches they just babel on and on during their church service for no other purpose than putting on a show, supposedly to show-off their great spirituality. They have a perfect score: NEVER!!! NEVER!!! NEVER!!! Never do they ever speak in any legitimate foreign human language, for the purpose of spreading the gospel. Every single modern foreign missionary has to go through the laborious and time consuming task of learning the language of the people where he intends to go.

The really amazing thing is that instead of getting accused of being phonies, they get multitudes of people to follow them. Those are the most popular type of churches in modern times..... and the most eager to be missionaries to spread their lies. Is it really possible that all those multitudes could follow them without knowing that those false leaders are phonies? What then? Are all those followers mentally ill? Perhaps a better explanation is that the majority of them are really followers of Satan pretending to be Christians. Then, whatever few innocent observers who happen to be present (who are not followers of Satan) usually get tripped-up in the deception, reject God, and eventually get persuaded to join the satanic phony Christians in order to deceive other unsuspecting people.

If you are standing in a group of ten thousand people who are all looking up and saying that the sky is green, that doesn't mean that the sky is green. Large groups of people all saying the same lie can be very persuasive on neutral observers. The truth is that the sky is blue and those ten thousand people are all liars. In Christianity those false Christians love doing things like that. In ALL Christian churches, THEY are the majority. And they know perfectly well that the sky is not green, but they know how influential a large group of people can be. Likewise, they know perfectly well that they don't have any of those supernatural gifts of the Holy Spirit, but they love deceiving people.

Normally, when a false prophet makes such a giant claim as saying they have the same supernatural gifts of the spirit as the Apostles received on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2), the people observing who can see very plainly that their giant claim is false, normally the people observing would reject them. But, when the false prophet is also surrounded by a lot of other people who all go on acting like the supernatural miracles of the Apostles really are happening (cheering for them), they get a different reaction from the neutral observers. Then, those false prophets start telling their word game tricks (lies), and then the people start to get accustomed to rationalizing-away the continual obvious absence of the supernatural miracles. They have a perfect score: absolute zero. Since the first generation of the church, almost 2,000 years, not even once.

This is also a common trick among con artists who try to get people to bet money on simple card games or the old “guess which shell the nut is under” game out in public. You know, that game when a film-flam man has three shells on a table with one nut under one of them, which he moves around and asks people to guess where the nut is. (Those games are always rigged somehow. You can see it on youtube.com: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8osRaFTtgHo> and <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GumWeVdcof4&t=35s>)

If he was to try to do it all by himself, as one person he would have difficulty even getting anyone at all to come close. But, when he already has a few people gathered (some of his own fellow con artists), more people come around, sometimes just out of curiosity when they see a crowd. The cons can also, as a group, make it look like the players are doing most of the winning, in order to motivate other people to bet their money. (And lose their money.) And likewise, in the churches, if one of those false prophets tried to heal a sick person all by themselves, nobody would follow them. But, in a group of other people cheering for the false prophet, they get a much different response from the neutral observers. Accumulating a crowd is very important for this type of con, without which, the gullible schmucks won’t even come close.

This type of deception often times can also “snow-ball”. The “snow-ball” effect is when a small ball of snow starts rolling down a hill, more snow sticks to its sides and makes it grow, as it rolls. Because of the accumulated weight it compacts the snow better as it rolls down, and gets more and more snow to stick to it. Well, in the churches, this pentecostal style “filled with the Spirit” scam can work much the same way. As they trap more and more people in their deceptive net, like a spider’s web, they get a bigger and bigger crowd. Many people seem to enjoy being part of this type of scam. The big crowd catches people’s attention, so, more and more people are attracted to the crowd just to see what’s going on, out of curiosity. In modern times, those “filled with the Spirit” type of churches are the most popular. They have more churches and people than any other type of church.

Returning to the subject of “laying on of hands”..... simple prayer WITHOUT the “laying on of hands” is very much different, which is not considered to be a “sign gift”. Simple prayer WITHOUT the “laying on of hands” will, on occasion, receive a response from God, sometimes even a supernatural response. The supernatural “sign gift” accompanied with the “laying on of hands” are not necessary for God to respond with true healing (sometimes even supernatural, that is, healing without the use of doctors or medication). But, quite to the contrary, the modern false “sign gift” accompanied with the “laying on of hands” NEVER, NEVER, NEVER receives any supernatural response from God. They have a perfect score: absolute zero. The only legitimate modern application of the custom of “laying on of hands” is for the ceremony of the ordination of new church leaders. (1Tim. 4:14) The supernatural “sign gift” accompanied with the “laying on of hands” has now been discontinued. Since the death of the Apostles not one person has ever had that gift, for almost 2,000 years.

Once there was a little boy who had a father who was dying of a terminal illness. Some visitors from their church came over to their house to comfort the family. A doctor was also there who told them all that there was no hope for the man and that he only had a short time to live. The little boy went downstairs into the basement of the house to pray alone for his father. He was so young that he didn't realize he was praying for an impossible supernatural miracle. Also, he didn't realize that he was praying right next to the entrance of the furnace air duct system that heated the entire house and that everyone in the house could hear his prayer through the air ducts.

When the boy came up from the basement, his father recovered.... and the most surprised person was the doctor. None of the people there “laid hands on” the sick man. It wasn't necessary or appropriate. It was not the type of church that taught the custom of “laying hands on” the sick person. The little boy's prayer was not a “sign gift” of the Spirit. The people, in modern churches, who use the “laying on of hands” never, never, never get this kind of response from God. Any supernatural healing from God always happens without the “laying on of hands”. Their sign gift is false, it never produces any positive results, and it only serves to indicate that they are phonies. (However, they do a lot of lying and make false claims. But you will never see any miracle done in public.) The sign gift and the “laying on of hands” has not been in effect since the end of the first generation Apostles, who were using the sign gifts to confirm that the New Testament was indeed the true Word of God.

In those churches that say they have the supernatural “gifts of the spirit”, their sick people never, never, never receive any supernatural healing at the moment of the “laying on of hands” in the name of Jesus Christ, as it happened in the NT. (Be careful, there are a lot of people telling lies to the contrary.) The results of the little boy's prayer mentioned above never, never, never happens when they “lay hands on” a sick person. They have a perfect score; absolute zero..... every last one of them in all history from the end of the Apostles until now, not one case. The only purpose of this modern custom of “laying on of hands” is to prove that they are phony “wolves in sheep's clothing”. Their sign gift is a “doctrine of devils” for the purpose of getting people to reject God. 1Tim 4:1 “Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;”

If someone expresses doubt and asks them why they weren't able to perform the healing, usually the false healer will accuse the person asking (the neutral observer) of having insufficient faith, which is something that could only apply to the unhealed person or the faith healer, not to a neutral observer. The neutral observer was not involved in the process. If an auto mechanic is not able to fix a car, and someone asks him why couldn't he fix it, is it appropriate that the auto mechanic blames the person asking?

Jesus Christ said, Mat 17:20 "And Jesus said unto them, for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you." Notice that, like the supernatural gifts of the spirit, the faith of moving mountains is not supposed to be used all the time or at any random time. It is only supposed to be used at a certain time, which is just before the second coming of Jesus Christ. Luke 3:4,5 "..... The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. 5- Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;" Just as the time for the movement of the mountains is reserved for just before the second coming, those sign gifts were reserved exclusively for the first generation church while the New Testament was being written by the people doing the miracles. Mark 16:20 "And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following."

(Oh, excuse me, I just made a slip. Typically..... saying that someone is "doing the miracles" is contradicted with a common response that nobody "does" the miracles; only God "does" the miracles. If you don't say things just the right way, they will respond with one of their deceptive word games. Those are the dummy lying word games they use to dodge the obvious fact that they never get the supernatural results that the Apostles got in the book of Acts. Nothing supernatural ever happens in their church meetings. NEVER!!!, NEVER!!!, NEVER!!!)

Sometimes the phonies like to play such word games, like when the faith healer is asked, by a neutral observer, why he was unable to heal the sick person, the phony faith healer sometimes gives a response like: "it's not me who does the supernatural healing, only God can do that." These people claim to have the same supernatural gift of healing that the Apostles had..... And yet when it is obvious that they don't, they twist words in response to avoid recognition that they are really dishonest satanic pretenders. Their goal is to get people to reject God..... And they've been very successful at it.

Also, it must be noted that the gift of healing was always accompanied with the ability to recognize if a person had the faith necessary for it. Act 14:8-10 "And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked: 9- The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, 10- Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked." Therefore, it is completely inappropriate, when the healing does not happen, for the faith healer to claim that the reason for the lack of a supernatural miracle was the lack of faith in the sick person.

Any healing that happens (in their case) always comes at some other time and is never any different than the same non-supernatural healing that any unbeliever gets who doesn't pray to God. Most of the time, after the failure of the faith-healer, the person goes to a doctor and gets healed the same way as anyone else. Then, many times, they claim that the healing had something to do with the faith-healer.

When someone is trying to accomplish something (anything) and the methodology they are using gets no results, it is not understandable that they continue using the same methodology, over and over again. Continuing using the same unsuccessful methodology over and over and over again is not understandable. Of course, you have to understand that those church leaders who are constantly “laying hands on” sick people and getting no results are not really interested in healing anyone. You must recognize that those leaders are “wolves in sheep's clothing” trying to get people to reject God..... then it's obvious that this methodology has been very successful..... and it's obvious why they keep using this methodology, because they are getting the real results they wanted in the first place; getting people to reject God.

Those false prophets also like to make their worship services very exciting with very exhilarating music and other emotional joyfulness. They know that it is human nature that when most people get very excited..... with a every emotional peak there is always an emotional valley on the other side. Getting people excessively excited gets them to fall soon afterwards when they hit their emotional valley afterwards. The excitement of the supposed supernatural gifts of the spirit combined with the peaks and valleys of an emotional roller-coaster ride is very effective at getting people to fall.

Nobody has any business using the Apostles' custom of “laying on of hands” for “sign gifts”. Not one person has ever had one of those supernatural “sign gifts” of the Spirit since the end of the first generation church until now; since the NT was finished being written. Act 5:12,13 “And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. But of the rest durst (dared) no man join himself to them: howbeit the people magnified them;” Here we can see that during the life of the Apostles nobody dared (durst) to “join himself to them”, that is, pretend to be an Apostle. (Also: Acts 8:8-24, 19:13-17)

Yet, in modern times, there is an abundance of phony church leaders going around claiming to have the same supernatural “gifts of the spirit” that the Apostles had. In some cases they even call themselves “Apostles”. (Example, 1997 film called: “The Apostle”. Another example is the Mormon Church's claims that their leaders are equal to the Apostles, starting with Joseph Smith.) If their Book of Mormon is really true, then it needs to be confirmed by God with the supernatural gifts of the Spirit, the same way that God confirmed the writing of the New Testament. But, the Book of Mormon has not been confirmed by God as the New Testament was.

One time I was speaking to two of those Mormons. When they told me that their leaders were equal to the Apostles, then I said those leaders must show miracles just like the Apostles did. So, they responded by accusing me of being a bad person just looking to see a miracle. Well, their leaders are NOT equal to the Apostles.

Many of those “sign gifts” people also do a lot of lying about miraculous supernatural healing that always, always, always happened at some other time, never ever publicly at the moment of “laying on of hands” in the name of Jesus Christ. They are liars and deceivers! Rest assured, if they ever received any supernatural healing, it was done secretly at some other time through the power of Lucifer, their true leader, not through the power of Jesus Christ.

If they really had the supernatural gifts of the Spirit, the way the Apostles did, they could go into whatever local hospital and empty it of all the sick people. If only half of their lies about supernatural healings were true, there would be an abundance of unemployed doctors and nurses. In fact, they would have such a reputation that no sick person would even go to a hospital. This means that those healers wouldn't have to go looking for people to heal, the sick people would come to them. All sick people would go to their local faith healer instead of a doctor. (There are a lot of them around, you know. Every other church has one. This is the most popular type of church in modern times.) Neighbors and family members of the healed sick people would not be able to deny that a supernatural healing took place. But in reality, their supernatural healings are very much deniable. Every time they lay hands on a sick person, nothing ever happens. They have a perfect score: absolute zero.

Everybody knows that if they want to get healed from any sickness, there's no point in wasting time going to a faith healer. Those phony leaders who propagate these lies are like snakes with forked tongues and poisonous fangs. Almost all of their followers know perfectly well that their claim to have the supernatural “gifts of the spirit” is all a big fat lie intended to deceive people and get people to reject God! Those churches are full of phony Christians. And, they have a few innocent neutral observers who don't really understand what's happening.

In those churches, they also refuse to distinguish between natural healing, that any unbeliever or animal can receive, and supernatural healing. There are many different types of healing: healing by changing diet, by using vitamins, by using medication, by exercise therapy, by using surgery, by using nothing (natural, that even animals have, like skin healing itself), general prayer (like the little boy mentioned above) or sign gift healing (accompanied with the laying on of hands, done only by the Apostles, found only in the Bible, which no longer is in operation today.) They always call all healing “supernatural”; they put all types of healing into one group. They refuse to make any distinction between the different types of healing and ignore the fact that whatever healing they experience never happens instantaneously at the moment of “laying on of hands”, in the name of Jesus Christ, as it was done in the NT.

They have to lump all healing into one inappropriate group so that nobody recognizes that they don't have the supernatural gift of healing as the Apostles had. They like to “stir up the mud”, so to say, to muddy the water so that nobody can see what's going on. Among those different types of healing, there is only one which never gets any positive results, never, never, never. That one is their false pretension lie to say that they have the same gifts of the spirit which the Apostles had. Nobody has had those special gifts of the spirit since the death of the first generation of the church until now. Almost two thousand years..... not one case.

This deliberate act of confusing the different types of healing is another one of their word games, which is really a bunch of lies. They know they're lying..... And they like it that way. Obviously, the moment that a distinction is made, it is absolutely unmistakable that NOBODY has received from God the gift of supernatural healing at the moment of "laying on of hands" in the name of Jesus Christ, as the Apostles had in the first generation church. After the death of the Apostles in the first generation church, not one person has ever had any of those supernatural gifts of the spirit..... From then until now. (Acts 5:13)

All of the modern, supposedly "filled with the Spirit" churches are constantly observing that "laying on of hands" never gets any results, yet they insist on continuing doing it.

If someone tried using methods for doing anything that got no results, would they continue using those methods? If they bought a method for dieting that got no results, would they continue buying it, and buying it, and buying it, and buying it? The obvious conclusion is that those people are lying deliberately. They know perfectly well that the custom of "laying on hands" gets no results. Its purpose is only to get people to reject God, which is the result that they secretly wanted in the first place.

It must also be recognized that in a few cases there are some people who don't even know why they have the custom of laying hands on people for prayer. In some cases, they might even think about it as an affectionate act, like how some people hold hands in a group as they pray around a dinner table before they eat. It is true that there are some of those "filled with the Spirit" churches that don't really explain to their people very well why they do what they do. As a result, there are some people who practice this custom without being guilty of bad intentions. They think they're just being affectionate; trying to be united in spirit or something. Laying hands on someone is like holding hands for prayer around the table before they eat. However..... these innocent people should be taught that they must discontinue this custom of always laying hands on people, while praying, for everything. They need to become aware of the danger and recognize the true intent of the perpetrators. And..... even in the Bible, this practice of "laying hands on" was not used for everything, as they use it in modern times.

If you ask those people why they have this custom of laying hands on people for prayer, they might say something like: "That's the way they did it in the Bible." But, what they don't understand is that in the Bible it was exclusively the Apostles who used this custom, and only for the supernatural sign gifts of the Holy Spirit. A supernatural miracle was always expected and received. The other people who were not Apostles never used this custom. Act 8:18-20 "And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19- Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost. 20- But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money."

In this type of church, in some cases, there is also a tendency that the supernatural sign gifts are treated with secondary importance. In other words, they spend most of their time concerned with genuine spiritual matters, so that all the supernatural stuff becomes of secondary (less) importance. They hardly even pay any attention at all to that supernatural stuff. Officially, it's part of their church doctrine, but in practice, it's mostly ignored. The result is, that even though they haven't fallen into the trap of the "filled with the Spirit" scam, they still have this custom of "laying hands on" people, but without really understanding what it means, or why they do it. So, in these cases, they never emphasize the deceptive purpose of the false gifts of the Spirit.

But, in regards to the guilty false Christians who know why they're doing what they are doing, the only miraculous thing is that God has been permitting them to receive the same type of healing that unbelievers receive. To the natural human mind, it would seem much more appropriate for God to strike them with sicknesses, plagues and death for spreading such lies. The false prophets who started this movement know perfectly well that nobody has had those "sign gifts" since the first generation church until now. They love spreading lies and corruption. They love being missionaries and spreading their lies and rottenness. All over the world, this is the most popular type of church. But, in the poor countries, those churches usually don't really understand what it is. Their leaders are usually uneducated and so, when they lay hands on people for prayer, they usually don't understand why. Those people need to be retrained to not use the custom of "laying hands on" people for prayer.

The curse of God (sickness, accidents and death), that goes along with such deceptive activity, will definitely come upon them when it is time for God to remove ALL of those corrupt leaders and establish "Shepherd David" as the one true leader of the entire worldwide faithful church. (Eze. 34) This article will expose them and ruin their age old practice of corrupting the church. When the falseness of their deception is exposed, they will be thrown out of the church, be disgraced and be unemployed. That alone would be enough disgraceful public embarrassment and economic loss to make the average corrupt church leader sick.

The faithful Christians should not be disturbed by a threat of sickness, like this new Corona-virus, which would stop church attendance. The faithful church should recognize this thing as some sort of lie. When any faithful church is persecuted, for example, they keep on meeting in secret. But unfaithful Christians show fear when doctors tell them to be afraid of a sickness which is contagious when meeting together. Even churches that don't teach that they have the supernatural gift of healing maintain at least some belief that God heals, nevertheless they are still too lukewarm to risk sickness or suffer persecution. Lukewarm Christians run and hide with fear, but faithful Christians keep on attending meetings.

But, faithful Christians are very few. So, who are the ones that keep on attending meetings? Where are they? Well, in most place, there aren't any. They're no place to be found. We're living in the age of the Lukewarm Church. (See article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church.)

And notice how it is the churches that teach they have the supernatural gift of healing that stop their meetings first. They are the first ones to show fear because they are constantly lying about the gift of healing. They have a guilty conscience. They go on, and on, and on talking about how they have the supernatural gift of healing, just like on the day of Pentecost when the Apostles put their hands on many sick people and healed them. But, when doctors tell them about a dangerous virus, they're the first ones who run and hide like cowards. It's kind of like the, "fastest gun in the west".

So, in the churches, most of the leaders are really enemies to Christianity. They are really satanic spies pretending to be Christian spiritual leaders. All of their talk about spiritual matters (sheep's clothing) is just enough to persuade people that they are the real thing. Meanwhile..... they keep the churches in a state of lukewarmness, by accompanying all that spiritual talk along with love of money and prosperity. (See article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church.) 1Tim 6:10 "For the love of money is the root of all evil"

The word "cynical" implies a type of mental illness that the person is always imagining that everyone else is always bad, continually inventing false dangers and perceiving everyone else as a big bad bogeyman. And almost all of their imagined dangers are non-existent. The opposite of this (cynical) sick way of thinking is to "play Ostrich", which is another type of mental illness when the person sees real danger approaching and they bury their heads in the sand pretending it does not exist. Well then..... is this COVID virus danger real or is it imaginary? Do all those dead people really exist.... or don't they? Don't forget that the true cause of those deaths can easily be falsified. All of the symptoms are identical with other sicknesses.

Was the attack on the twin towers real or was it fake? Were those people who jumped out of the burning twin towers real people? or were those fake human bodies that splattered on the sidewalk down below? Has any real person died from this new "Corona-virus" or were all those news reports fake? Maybe the true cause of the deaths were faked, but the deaths really did happen. (See article listed below on: The COVID Hoax.) My own personal experience with the COVID virus is that it is no more dangerous than the common cold. Don't forget, many years ago people used to die from the common cold.

Some people might call me "cynical", but I say that they are "playing Ostrich". The "wolves in sheep's clothing" are real, Jesus Christ himself warned against them. Not only that, but they are in every church. Satan is very busy corrupting the churches.

Mat 7:15 "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves." Jude 1:3,4 "Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye (y'all) should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ."

And so..... "playing Ostrich" has now become an epidemic, especially in the US. Most people don't want to recognize that real danger is approaching. This is kind of like how after WW1, when the Nazis were rising to power, most of the other people did not want to recognize that what was happening was really what was happening. They didn't want to face reality.

Or..... how about the Titanic? Should anyone have been surprised or unprepared when they hit an iceberg traveling full speed at night in an ocean full of icebergs? Oh..... sorry, all of those people had already been informed that the Titanic was unsinkable. So..... were they really responsible for thinking that there was no danger? Maybe not.

The few individual faithful Christians, anywhere to be found, should now start praying for the real open exposure and punishment of the "wolves in sheep's clothing" in the churches. All of those "wolves in sheep's clothing" must be exposed and removed from the church. (See article on: The New World Order was Prophesied in the Bible.) The phrase "see article" means to "see article". It's amazing how people have questions and those questions have been answered in the designated article, and I tell them to "see article", yet they don't see the article which would answer their questions.

Now, we are living during the era of the lukewarm church of Laodicea. (See article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church.) And God is going to punish the lukewarm church. Rev 3:19 "As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent." The word "chasten" means "punish". But, in this verse, it does not give us any details on exactly how God is going to discipline this half-corrupt church. (See article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church.)

When those false leaders are removed, Pastor David will replace them. Notice that "Shepherd David" is also called a "prince". The first David was both a true prophet of God and a king at the same time. In his youth, David was also a shepherd of real sheep, before he slew the giant champion gladiator Goliath with a sling and a rock. 1Sam.17:34-37 "And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock: 35- And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him. 36- Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God. 37- David said more-over, The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine (Goliath)." KJV

(please read all of 1Sam. 17) (Goliath stood approximately six cubits, which is about nine feet tall, three yards or three meters.) (1Sam.17:4) (A cubit is a general length measurement from the elbow to the fingers, approximately 18 inches, about a foot and a half.) (Notice that the main offense was that the giant had "defied the armies of the living God", which was the same as blasphemy. That is why God sent a child to knock him down and to chop off his head, with his own gigantic sword.)

Jesus Christ referred to himself as the "good shepherd". John 10:11-15 "I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. 12- But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. 13- The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. 14- I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. 15- As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep."

What is a "good shepherd"? Psa 23:1,4 "The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want (lack anything)..... thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." What is the shepherd's rod used for? It is for protecting the sheep against wild animals, like wolves, and it is for keeping the sheep in line to make sure they don't go wandering off some place. When Jesus Christ physically returns to establish His kingdom here on earth, He will use a "rod of iron". Rev. 2:27"And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers (small pieces)...."

Does it seem correct that a shepherd would smash the head of a wolf with a rod as though it was a piece of pottery? The time is coming when the satanic spies in the churches will have their heads smashed like pieces of pottery. Is there any reason for a real sheep to be afraid of a shepherd who treats a wolf in such a manner? No. What about a "wolf in sheep's clothing"? What if some "wolves in sheep's clothing" already had some of the real sheep convinced that they also were real sheep? Should the real sheep who were deceived by the "wolves in sheep's clothing" think that the "good shepherd" is smashing the heads of real sheep? Obviously, the falsehood of the satanic spies must be revealed somehow. Rev 3:9 "Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews (Christians), and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee." This is one of the ways that the identity of the satanic spies will be revealed. And..... what about the real sheep who are following the bad teachings of the "wolves in sheep's clothing", should they expect to get their heads smashed like pottery? Well, that depends on whether they continue to follow the corruption after they have been warned.

Notice how the modern mentality that physical discipline for adults being considered as always wrong has only been a common way of thinking in about the last century or so. Before our modern era, it was always considered normal that a misbehaving adult merits physical punishment. Without such physical punishment misconduct increases. The present epidemic of criminal behavior among adults is very strong testimony to prove that.

Did the old prophet Samuel seem to be acting like a true man of God when he chopped up the wicked man Agag with a sword? (1Sam 15:32) How about Nehemiah? When the children of Israel returned from Babylon and the same problem of the people inter-marrying with people in other bad religions started all over again, Nehemiah solved it by beating them and ripping the hair out off their heads. Some of them he even ran out of town. Neh. 13:25,28 “And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off (ripped off) their hair..... 28- therefore I chased him from me.” (Run out of town, banish, excommunicate.) All of the faithful leaders were honored by God for taking action against corruption. (Neh. 13:23-29)

Sometimes, because of corruption among the children of Israel, God showed His extreme wrath (anger) by sending plagues, cursing or enemies (war). (Deut. 28:16-68) Occasionally, there arose a man of God who turned away the wrath of God and prevented a massive plague among the people by striking down the leaders of the offenders. Num. 25:7-13 “And when Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand; And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel. And those that died in the plague were twenty and four thousand. And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, while he was zealous for my sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Israel in my jealousy. Wherefore say, Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace: And he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel.” (Also see: Exo. 32:26-28) Here we see that Phinehas, the grandson of Aaron the high priest, had taken a javelin in his hand and he ran after an immoral man who was about to inter-marry with a foreign woman from a bad religion, and stabbed them both through the stomach with the javelin. (Num. 25:7)

Yet, in modern Christian churches it is very common that church members inappropriately inter-marry with anyone they want outside of the faithful Christian church and the church leaders do nothing about this type of corruption, thereby making their own churches unfaithful. Even among the few who teach against it, when people in their church do it anyway, those church leaders do nothing about it. Those corrupt inter-marriages must be broken up. (Ezra 10:2,3Neh. 13:23-30) The corrupt Christians who inter-marry and refuse to break it up need to be excommunicated from the church.

It must also be understood that inappropriate inter-marriage dilutes the race, whatever that race happens to be. Most of the tribes of native American Indians no longer exist, because they have intermarried over the years with the European settlers; and now, the only place native American Indians can be found as a pure race is where they have only married their own people, such as on Indian reservations. So also, Christianity dies out when Christians inter-marry with outsiders; it dilutes Christianity. It makes Christians lukewarm and they lose interest in faithful Christian living. (See article listed below on: The Lukewarm Church.)

When Jesus Christ came the first time, he came as a sacrifice lamb, and was crucified on a cross. But, the Bible says that when he returns, he will come like a lion, as a king to execute judgment on all the people who oppose God. (Rev. 5:5) When Jesus Christ returns he is depicted as someone trampling his enemies underfoot, like the old custom of someone treading out grapes, crushing them under their feet in an old-fashioned winepress. Rev. 14:19,20 "And the angel thrust in his sickle (reaping hook) into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs." (1 furlong = 220 yards)

Rev. 19:11-20 "And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God; That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great. And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone."

There is still a little time. Turn to God now and accept His offer of salvation and eternal life. Rom. 10:9-13 “That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. 10- For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 11- For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. 13- For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” (See article listed below on: Salvation.)

Christians, you must reject the “wolves in sheep's clothing” that are currently running the modern lukewarm churches. (See article on: The Lukewarm Church) Stand up for the true teachings of the Bible. Carry the cross of Christ so that you will have an eternal inheritance in the next life and that you will not experience the disgraceful punishment of the lukewarm church. Luke 9:23-26 “..... If any man will come after me (Jesus), let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. 24- For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it. 25- For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away? 26- For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.” Pray now that all the corrupt church leaders are taken out of the way after which the true “Shepherd David” can be revealed. (Eze. 34:10,23,24)

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS

Here is one last example of how “wolves in sheep's clothing” inject poison into some churches. They have been very successful at getting some churches to accept the teaching that all musical instruments are bad and should never be used in any worship service. The basis of this is that they say that a lot of music has already been used in an evil way for bad purposes. Other explanations for this teaching even include the fact that in the book of Acts, that is to say, the early church never mentions them using musical instruments in their worship services. (Notice – The absence of mentioning it in the early church does not mean instruments weren't used.) And of course, they have to ignore the Bible references to the use of harps in heaven.

They usually don't prohibit their members from listening to non-religious music outside of their worship services, just during the service itself. It is the instruments themselves that they are opposed to, during the worship service. Well then, what about electronic amplification systems, with microphones and speakers? The early church never used any of that. So, why don't they prohibit that?

They even take this so far as to condemn other churches that use musical instruments during their worship services. In some cases they even believe that the other churches are going to hell for no other reason than the use of musical instruments during their worship services.

You would think they should be opposed to musical instruments because much of the non-Christian music out in the world produces a very sensual sound with a lot of emphasis on indulging in fornication & love making. (And many other bad things.) But no, they're not concerned about that for their members. They don't have any problem permitting sin for their own church members.

But, they condemn members of other churches for using musical instruments in their church services. Mat 7:1-2 "Judge not, that ye be not judged. 2- For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again."

In heaven: Rev 5:8-9 "..... four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours (aroma, incense), which are the prayers of saints. 9- And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;"

How are those people ever going to go to heaven if the worship services in heaven use musical instruments? They think those people are going to hell. They won't fit in at all. They have judged incorrectly, following the errors taught to them by bad wolves in their own churches.
